

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 15 Dec 2011

RETL (Remi Edlestahl Tubulars Ltd) manufacturer of precision stainless steel tubing & piping is part of 100 Million+ US$ REMI Group of Companies, HQ in Goregaon Mumbai and Manufacturing Plant at Boiser, Maharashtra.

RETL received "Commendation Certificate for efforts made in 2011 to conserve energy" on 14 Dec 2011 on the day of "Energy Conservation Day" at Vigyan Bhavan, New Delhi from our Hon'ble Cabinet Minister Shri Sushil Kumar Shinde.

RETL is very proud to add this another feather to the pride of REMI Group. REMI Group is a Green IPP, owns two wind Mills at Dhulia, Maharashtra

Shri Manmohan Singh, Prime Minister of India lights a lamp to mark the beginning of award ceremony

(In Picture above) From left to Right (1) Shri P Uma Shanker (Secretary MOP) (2) Shri Sushil Kumar Shinde (Minister of Power) (3) Shri Venu Gopal (State Minister of Power) & (4) Mr. Vipul Sutaria, (Sr. VP, REMI, RETL)

National Energy Conservation Award

This commendation certificate is awarded to

M/s Remi Edelstahl Tubulars Limited

Tarapur, Boisar

(Maharashtra)

in appreciation of their efforts in Energy Conservation in the Steel-Re rolling Sector

for the year 2011

Uma Manikar

Secretary to the Government of India

Ministry of Power

New Delhi

14 December 2011